

Press release
15 May 2013

Francis Lemor, Chairman of STEF for six more years

The Board of STEF met today after the annual general meeting of shareholders and reappointed Francis Lemor as Chairman for another six-year term. This decision confirms and reinforces the stability of STEF's traditional management model.

The group's governance changed on July 1, 2012, when the functions of Chairman and CEO were separated.

Jean-Pierre SANCIER is the CEO of the Group.

He is supported by three Deputy Managing Directors:

- Serge Capitaine, in charge of sales and marketing,
- Bruno Duquenne, in charge of European operations,
- Stanislas Lemor, in charge of administration and finance.

STEF

About STEF

STEF is the European specialist for cold logistics for food and thermo-sensitive products. Our mission is to create a safe link between manufacturers and retail outlets. The Group specialises in and brings together all transport, logistics and I.T. skills necessary for temperature-controlled flows. (-25°C / +18°C). The Group has subsidiaries in 8 European countries (Belgium, France, Holland, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Switzerland and the United Kingdom), and in Tunisia. It has 14,500 employees and a specialised infrastructure: 216 warehouses and platforms and more than 4,000 tractor-trailers, half of them self owned. The group's income for 2012 was 2,502.3 M€.

For more information, please go to www.stef.com

Press contact : Catherine MARIE - Tel : +33 1 40 74 29 64 - +33 6 35 23 10 88

catherine.marie@stef.com