STEF strengthens its position in North-East Italy

STEF doubles its business in North-East Italy – the Trentino region - through the integration of the business of Trentino Fresco.

The integration of the Trentino Fresco business into STEF, completed at the end of June, has led to the creation, on July 1st, of a new company called STEF Trento, 51% owned by STEF Italia and 49% by Trentino Fresco.

With this new entity, STEF Italia's projected sales in the Trento region will reach €6 million (versus €3 million previously), and the company will become the benchmark logistics operator in this region.
